Joe Bourdow Named 2015 Clutch Hitters Chair

The Clutch Hitters of Tampa Bay has named retired Valpak President Joe Bourdow Board Chair for 2015.

The Clutch Hitters is a group of nearly one hundred influential Tampa Bay business leaders whose mission and purpose is to ensure the long-term viability and preservation of the Tampa Bay Rays as a regional asset.

For over a year, The Clutch Hitters has encouraged the Rays and City of St. Petersburg to have meaningful, two-way discussions to find a win-win solution permitting the Rays to look throughout the Tampa Bay Region for the best location of a new stadium.

Bourdow has lived in Tampa Bay since 1991 and has been a Rays full season ticket holder since 1998. He was previously active with the ABC Coalition and earlier, with the St. Pete Chamber committee that reviewed the proposal for a new ballpark at Al Lang Field. Today he is a franchise consultant and is active in the community working on the East-West Shrine Game and serving as Chairman of the Board of Trustees at Academy Prep-St. Petersburg. Joe and his wife Marylou live on North Redington Beach.
